Pandemi Covid-19 telah menyebabkan perubahan dinamika ekonomi rumah tangga karena kepala keluarga di-PHK, kesulitan mencari pekerjaan atau pendapatan berkurang. Pasca pandemi, banyak usaha yang mulai membuka lowongan, termasuk perusahaan garmen Jepara yang menjadi peluang bagi wanita muslimah untuk mendapatkan penghasilan sehingga bisa berkontribusi untuk ekonomi keluarga dan tetap memenuhi perannya sebagai istri dan anak. Penelitian ini menggunakan metode kualitatif, studi kasus. peran istri dalam keluarga, mengasuh suami, anak, semua pekerjaan rumah tangga, mengasuh anak, dll. Tugas anak, merawat orang tua, membantu orang tua, menghormati orang tua, membahagiakan orang tua, dll. Karena kondisi ekonomi menjadi alasan istri dan anak bekerja di perusahaan garmen dan membantu mempertahankan ekonomi keluarga. Peran perempuan muslim setelah bekerja menjadi terganggu dan kurang seimbang karena sebagian besar waktunya yang habis di pabrik. Kontribusi tenaga kerja wanita terhadap perekonomian cukup besar, dengan presentase rata-rata 50%, dalam hal peningkatan pendapatan rumah tangga dan kemampuan membeli barang-barang yang menunjang kesejahteraan keluarga, Wanita Muslimah bekerja atas izin suami dan orang tua, dan wanita Muslimah memutuskan bekerja untuk kepentingan keluarga sehingga tidak bertentangan dengan Islam.

ABSTRACT

Amin Fudlah, 1950110130 : Pekerja Wanita Muslimah Pasca Pandemi Covid-19: Peran dan Kontribusi Ekonomi Kasus Pekerja Garmen Jepara.

The Covid-19 pandemic has caused changes in the dynamics of the household economy because the head of the family has been laid off, has difficulty finding work or has reduced income. After the pandemic, many businesses have started to open vacancies, including a Jepara garment company which is an opportunity for Muslim women to earn income so they can contribute to the family economy and continue to fulfill their roles as wife and children. This research uses qualitative methods, case studies. the role of the wife in the family, taking care of her husband, children, all household chores, raising children, etc. Children's duties, caring for parents, helping parents, honoring parents, making parents happy, etc. Because economic conditions are the reason why wives and children work in garment companies and help maintain the family economy. The role of Muslim women after work becomes disturbed and less balanced. The contribution of female workers to the economy is quite large, with an average percentage of 50%, in terms of increasing household income and the ability to buy goods that support family welfare. Muslim women work with the permission of their husbands and parents, and Muslim women decide to work for family interests so as not to conflict with Islam.
