Delivered at the International Fikrah Annual Conference, Thursday, October 10, 2019 at the Faculty of Usuluddin IAIN Kudus

Introduction

We all know that religion and humans are important. Humans without religion will become chaotic and undirected.

Because of us, if we pay attention to the relationship between humans and religion carried out in harmony, then we will get the safety, happiness and prosperity of life in the world and the hereafter.

Religion encourages people to always be creative, innovative and productive.

Religion is able to provide inspirational solutions in overcoming all the problems of life.

Therefore the International fikrah annual conference is something important to talk about.

Religious education for humans will be the basis for the formation of a holistic human being. Education that is able to optimize reason, ratio and revelation. The form of God's love for humans can be seen from the potential of reason and the ratio that has been given, God guides to keep on his path by being given a book (revelation) for humans as a guide to human life so that they are safe from the world to the hereafter.

The model of religious education for humans in this contemporary era, we always pay attention to the synergy between internal and external factors, such as religion, ideology, politics, issues, defense culture and equality with various multi-disciplinary approaches
