

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

A. Conclusions

Based on the research conducted by author on the analysis of moral values in the animated film Onward, it can be concluded as follows:

1. Onward movie contains many life lessons that can be taken, advice and moral values. Moral values that can be found in Onward movie consists of 12 moral values such as: honesty, hard work, creativity, curiosity, appreciate achievements, responsibility, take risks, action-oriented, innovative, cooperative, never give up , and strong motivation to be success.
2. All the moral values that found in Onward the animated movie can be taught by students long-life, especially for young people and of course as one way to build the nation's character to be better and more advanced.

B. Recommendations

Based on the research and conclusions above, the authors will provide suggestions that can be used as input, considerations for future research and for educational institutions.

In Onward movie contains many moral values is founded. so that this movie is suitable if used as a source of learning in education, because there are many lessons that can be learned from each scene.

Through the movie, students will be more enthusiastic in learning, so this movie can help educators in efforts to instill good morals to the student.